Die Mercurii, 2 Martii. 1641.

The Lords and Commons in this present Parliament assembled, having received advertisement of extraordinary preparations made by the neighbouring Princes, both by Land and Sea; the intentions whereof have been so represented, as to raise an apprehension in both Houses, That the publike Honour, Peace, and Safety of His Majesty and His Kingdom cannot be secured, unlesse a timely course be taken for the putting of this Kingdom into a Condition of defence, at Sea, as well as Land. It is therefore Ordered, by the Lords and Commons aforesaid, That the Earl of Northumberland, Lord high Admirall of England, do forthwith give effectuall direction and order, that all and every the Ships belonging to His Majesties Nauy, which are fit for service, and not already abroad, nor designed for this Summers Fleet, be withall speed Rigged, and put in such a readinesse, as that they may soon be fitted for the Sea; And that his Lordship do also make known unto all the Masters and Owners of such Ships as now are in, or about any the Harbours of this Kingdom, and may be of use for the publike defence thereof, That it will be an acceptable service to the King and Parliament, if they likewise will cause their Ships to be Rigged, and so far put in a readinesse, as they may be at a short warning set forth to Sea, upon any immergeant occasion, which will be a means of great security to his Majesty and his Dominions.
